

Elements, Compounds, and Mixtures

How particles are grouped

Element

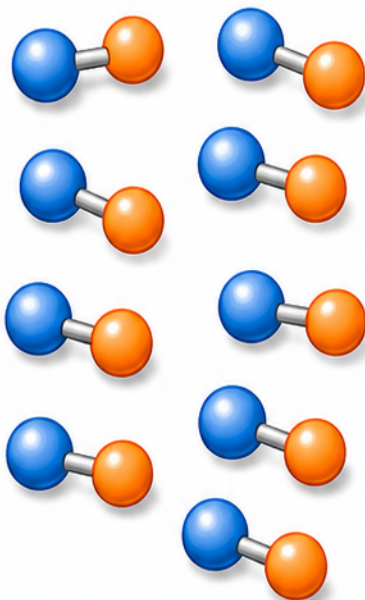

One kind of atom.

All particles are the same.

Compound

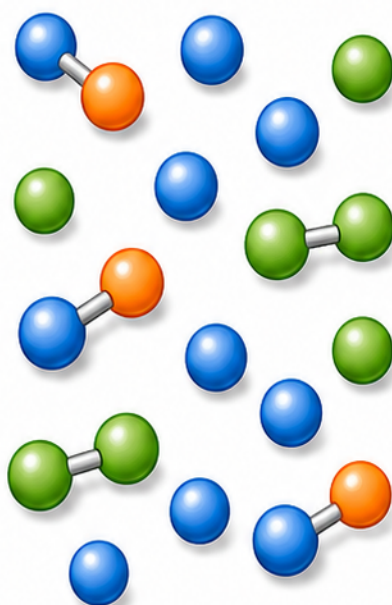

Two or more elements chemically bonded.

All particles are the same bonded combination.

Mixture

Two or more substances physically combined.

Particles are mixed together, not all the same.

Element = one type. Compound = bonded.
Mixture = together.

Elements, Compounds, and Mixtures

How particles are grouped

Element

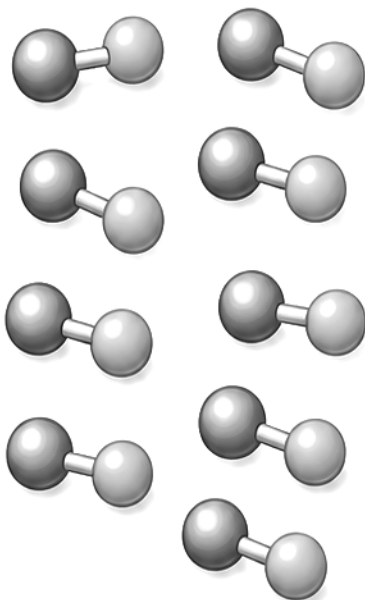

One kind of atom.

All particles are the same.

Compound

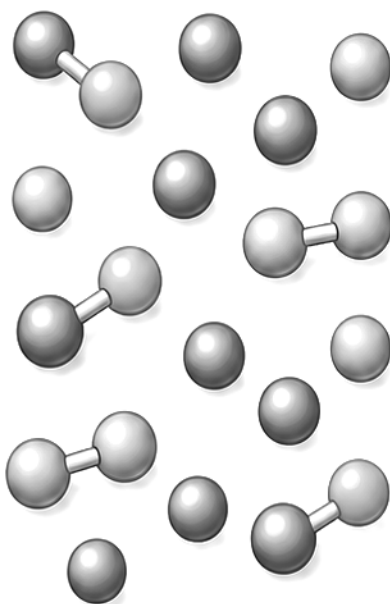

Two or more elements chemically bonded.

All particles are the same bonded combination.

Mixture

Two or more substances physically combined.

Particles are mixed together, not all the same.

Element = one type. Compound = bonded.
Mixture = together.